US2U Consulting attend The Enterprise Centre unveiling at UEA

US2U Consulting were pleased to attend the opening of The Enterprise Centre at the University of East Anglia on Thursday 8th October.

The Enterprise Centre comprises a number of carbon-neutral, locally-sourced materials including Thetford timber, Norfolk thatch and polished concrete, making it one of the most sustainable buildings in Europe.

It is anticipated that the centre will help foster an increasingly entrepreneurial culture both among UEA students and across the region in the coming years.

To celebrate providing ongoing great service to UEA staff and students, and their mutual commitment to a greener environment, Rachel Blackburn arrived in an ABC Taxi Eco Car!

Engage with Authentic Leadership

Authentic leadership is an approach to leadership that emphasises building relationships based on positivity and the ethical foundations of openness and honesty, and typically comprises five key characteristics:

1. Self-awareness
2. Transparent relationships
3. Being mission-driven and results-focussed
4. Leading with hearts as well as minds
5. Adopting a long-term focus

Strictly Making a Positive Difference!

Rachel Blackburn was thrilled to be invited to the Dot Com Children's Foundation Strictly Ballroom Fundraising Gala Dinner on Monday 14th September at Mansion House, London.

Dot Com Children's Foundation is aimed at empowering children through its Value Versus Violence Education Programme and managed to raise an impressive £81,000 on the night.

Attending as a guest of long-standing client Worldwide Fruit and pictured with the night's compare Anton Du Beke, Rachel Blackburn contributed to the silent auction, winning a signed pair of Wayne Rooney's matchworn football boots!
